Oklahoma Native American Youth Language Fair
Spoken Prayer Performance
Category Description and Guidelines

Students recite or perform traditional passages in Native languages. The spoken prayer category, as opposed to spoken language, involves prayers, blessings, traditional speech and quotations from elders and ancestors that inspire solemn reverence. Presentations promote fluency, confidence and traditional expression in Native speech. Young language learners hone cultural techniques of oratory in Native languages and gain experience with public speaking.

This is a live category. You must be pre-registered and present to perform and to receive awards.

DO
- Pre-register online
- Focus on Native language use
- Keep a five-minute time limit (plus two minutes for set-up and exiting the stage)
- Use props, costumes and Native regalia

DON’T
- Use scripts, notes or cheat-sheets
- Speak in English
- Have teachers on stage, except Pre-K & K
- Use food, animals or organic materials (grass, bark, leaves) in the performance

Judging Performances
A panel of at least three elders, Native language teachers, and/or Native speakers will judge performances on these criteria:
- Amount of Native American language used
- Presentation and poise of performance
- Ease and comfort of language use
- Spirit of performance

Notes
- You must pre-register to receive t-shirts and awards. Please do so as early as possible.
- Limited rehearsal space is available. This space is shared with other groups.
- Contact us if you’re concerned about whether your props and regalia count as “organic.”
- Group sizes and performance venues are subject to change based on registered entries.
- Students performing in multiple categories may experience scheduling conflicts. We try to avoid this, but help us out and let us know if you see a potential problem!
- Questions? Comments? Help? Contact us at onaylf.samnoblemuseum@ou.edu or at (405) 325-7588.

By entering a material submissions category, you are agreeing to allow the ONAYLF and/or Sam Noble Oklahoma Museum of Natural History to retain a digital copy or scan of your material submission. This record will become part of the Native American Language collection at SNOMNH and is open access (but is not copyrighted to the museum). It may also be used in promotion of the ONAYLF, in Native language teacher training workshops, or in related NAL programs.
