

Spring Break Escape 2019 Schedule

Children must be accompanied by an adult during all programs.

Monday, March 18

- | | |
|----------------------------|--|
| 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. | The Sky's the Limit Discovery Trek (Information Desk)
Hawks are hiding around the museum today. Grab your list of clues at the information desk and fly around the galleries to find them all, then head to the Discovery Room for a prize! |
| 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. | Craft: Cricket Sticks (Great Hall)
Did you know that crickets "chirp" by rubbing their wings together? Join us to learn some cricket facts and make beaded sticks that sound like a chirping cricket! |
| 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. | Meet a Scientist: Recent Invertebrates (Great Hall)
Check out some cool insects, spiders and other animals without backbones, then meet a scientist that studies them! |
| 11 a.m. to noon | Sounds of Science (Robert S. Kerr Auditorium)
Join the Oklahoma Museum Network for a high-energy, fast-paced demonstration and help us celebrate the incredible role sound and music play in our world. This program will be filled with exciting experiments, spectacular sounds and musical marvels. |
| 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. | THAT PIE TRUCK Food Truck (Outside)
Head outside and join us for some tasty treats! THAT PIE TRUCK will be serving up both sweet and savory pies. |
| 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. | Art Station (Pleistocene Plaza)
Unleash your inner artist at our art station! You can choose one of three designs to decorate, then take your masterpiece home with you. |
| 1 to 2 p.m. | Sounds of Science (Robert S. Kerr Auditorium)
Join the Oklahoma Museum Network for a high-energy, fast-paced demonstration and help us celebrate the incredible role sound and music play in our world. This program will be filled with exciting experiments, spectacular sounds and musical marvels. |

1:30 to 4 p.m.

Craft: Make a Mini Dinosaur (Great Hall)

Dinosaurs lived long ago but you can now have one of your own! Join us as we make a fun, foldable dinosaur that you can take home.

2 to 3 p.m.

Kiting is Exciting! (Education Classroom)

Space is limited to 30 people on a first come, first served basis.*
Join the Confucius Institute to learn about kite-making and create your own flying kite to take home!

2 to 4 p.m.

Paint Your Own Face (Pleistocene Plaza)

Get creative! Paint your face like a T. rex, triceratops or saber-toothed cat.

2:45 to 4 p.m.

Fun with Fossils (Great Hall)

Stop by to see some cool dinosaur fossils, meet a paleontologist and learn about the museum's science-outreach program, ExplorOlogy®.

Tuesday, March 19

10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Oklahoma Adventure Discovery Trek (Information Desk)

Bison will be hiding in each gallery today. Grab your list of clues at the information desk and find them all, then head to the Discovery Room for a prize!

10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Craft: Planet Suncatchers (Great Hall)

Decorate a suncatcher with patterns and colors to look like one of the solar system's planets or invent your own!

10:30 to 11:30 a.m.

Meet a Scientist: Native American Languages (Great Hall)

Join us to learn all about the museum's Native American Languages collection, which has materials from over 72 different languages!

11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Professor B. Looney (Great Hall)

If you can think of it, he can create it! Balloon artist Professor B. Looney will perform a one-hour interactive balloon show at 11 a.m. He will make balloon creatures for visitors from noon to 1 p.m.

11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Cook'n It Up Food Truck (Outside)

Head outside and join us for some tasty treats! Cook'n It Up will be serving up waffles, subs, tacos and everything in between!

11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Art Station (Pleistocene Plaza)

Unleash your inner artist at our art station! You can choose one of three designs to decorate, then take your masterpiece home with you.

11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Oklahoma Nature Conservancy (Great Hall)

Catch our monarch madness as the Oklahoma Nature Conservancy runs a booth filled with butterfly activities and info!

1:30 to 4 p.m.

Craft: Spider Hats (Pleistocene Plaza)

Did you know there are over 40,000 different species of spiders in the world? Join us to learn some cool spider facts and make a fun spider hat to take home!

1:45 to 2:30 p.m.

Gymboree (Great Hall)

Wiggle, dance and sing with Gymboree! Don't miss out as Gymboree Play & Music offers physical, musical and sensory activities.

2 to 3 p.m.

Aim for the Sky! (Education Classroom)

This program is come and go.*

Experiment with different airplane designs or get creative and make one of your own before testing it out in our education hallway.

2 to 4 p.m.

Paint Your Own Face (Pleistocene Plaza)

Get creative! Paint your face like a turtle, snake or frog.

2:45 to 4 p.m.

Ancient Creatures of the Deep (Great Hall)

Join us to discover some ancient ocean animals, dig for fossils and learn all about the museum's science-outreach program, ExplorOlogy®.

Wednesday, March 20

10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Wild about Water Discovery Trek (Information Desk)

Fish will be hiding around the galleries today. Grab your list of clues at the information desk and reel them all in, then head to the Discovery Room for a prize!

10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Stone Toolmaking Demonstration (Museum Lobby)

Watch Neil Garrison create beautiful stone tools and arrowheads using traditional flint knapping techniques!

10 a.m. to 1 p.m.	Craft: Pteranodon Puppets (Great Hall) Pteranodons look like dinosaurs, but they are actually flying reptiles! Come make your own Pteranodon puppet and learn about these lizards of the sky.
10:30 to 11:30 a.m.	Meet a Scientist: Ichthyology (Great Hall) Stop by the Great Hall to meet a museum scientist that studies fish and see some of them up close!
11 to 11:45 a.m.	Mike Hosty (Great Hall) Local guitar guru Mike Hosty will have you singing and dancing along to his one-of-a-kind songs. Hosty entertains as a one-man-band, playing drums with his feet while strumming the guitar and singing at the same time!
11 a.m. to 2 p.m.	Art Station (Pleistocene Plaza) Unleash your inner artist at our art station! You can choose one of three designs to decorate, then take your masterpiece home with you.
11 a.m. to 2 p.m.	Yum Yum Bites Food Truck (Outside) Head outside and join us for some tasty treats! Yum Yum Bites is serving up Asian cuisine with Vietnamese flare and flavor, along with Boba teas.
1 to 1:45 p.m.	Mike Hosty (Great Hall) Local guitar guru Mike Hosty will have you singing and dancing along to his one-of-a-kind songs. Hosty entertains as a one-man-band, playing drums with his feet while strumming the guitar and singing at the same time!
1:30 to 4 p.m.	Craft: Cave Art (Great Hall) There are caves all around the world that contain art from prehistoric times. Come make your own cave art from paper, crayons and markers!
2 to 3 p.m.	Dinosaur Discovery (Education Classroom) *Space is limited to 30 people on a first come, first served basis. Join Jennifer Larsen, vertebrate paleontology collection manager, in our classroom as we dig for Oklahoma fossils and learn how to identify them in an excavation simulation.
2 to 4 p.m.	Paint Your Own Face (Pleistocene Plaza)

Get creative! Paint your face with scales, stripes or spots.

2:45 to 4 p.m.

Fantastic Fish (Great Hall)

Stop by to see some cool fish specimens, meet a scientist who studies them and learn all about the museum's science-outreach program, ExplorOlogy®.

Thursday, March 21

10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Buggin' Out Discovery Trek (Information Desk)

Butterflies will be fluttering around the museum today. Grab your list of clues at the information desk and find them all, then head to the Discovery Room for a prize!

10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Craft: Fossil Rubbings (Pleistocene Plaza)

Stop by to learn about fossils and how scientists find them. You'll get to make a fossil rubbing to take home!

10:30 to 11:30 a.m.

Meet a Scientist: Paleobotany (Great Hall)

Stop by to meet a museum scientist that studies ancient plants and take a closer look at some real fossils!

10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Oklahoma Forestry Services (Outside)

Join us at the forestry booth outside by the café! Meet an Oklahoma Forester, learn how to identify trees and meet Smokey the Bear! Visitors can also receive a seedling to take home (quantities are limited).

11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Art Station (Pleistocene Plaza)

Unleash your inner artist at our art station! You can choose one of three designs to decorate, then take your masterpiece home with you.

11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Oklahoma Fancy Dancers (Great Hall)

The Oklahoma Fancy Dancers are a group of powwow champions that come together to form a highly-acclaimed, professional Native American dance troupe. The dance shows are educational, informational and entertaining and showcase a variety of traditional American Indian tribal dances.

noon to 2 p.m.

Tasty Snow Food Truck (Outside)

Tasty Snow will be outside the museum passing out FREE snow cones to all guests!

- 1 to 1:30 p.m. Native American Storytelling (Hall of the People of Oklahoma)
Head upstairs to the Hall of the People of Oklahoma for traditional Kiowa and Caddo storytelling with Cricket Rhoads-Connywerdy.
- 1:30 to 4 p.m. Craft: Insect Masks (Great Hall)
Insects like moths and butterflies have a special, straw-like tongue called a proboscis that allows them to suck nectar from flowers. Come make an insect mask with a curly proboscis!
- 2 to 3 p.m. Oklahoma Fancy Dancers (Great Hall)
The Oklahoma Fancy Dancers are a group of powwow champions that come together to form a highly-acclaimed, professional Native American dance troupe. The dance shows are educational, informational and entertaining and showcase a variety of traditional American Indian tribal dances.
- 2 to 4 p.m. Paint Your Own Face (Pleistocene Plaza)
Get creative! Paint your face like a fox, a deer or a rabbit.
- 2:45 to 4 p.m. Animal Adventure (Great Hall)
Stop by the Great Hall for an animal adventure! Discover some animals from Oklahoma and learn all about the museum's science-outreach program, ExplorOlogy®.

Friday, March 22

- 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Slime and Scales Discovery Trek (Information Desk)
Frogs will be hiding in each gallery today! Grab your list of clues at the information desk and find them all, then hop on over to the Discovery Room for a prize!
- 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Craft: Animal Masks (Great Hall)
Animals have special features, or adaptations, that help them survive. Choose your animal's features and make a cool mask to take home!
- 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. Exploration Station: Bug Room (Great Hall)
Come see flesh-eating beetles from the museum's bug room! Meet our dermestid technician and some of our smallest museum workers to learn about their important jobs!
- 10:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Insect Adventure (Education Classroom)

This program is come and go.*

Have you dreamed of holding a foot-long millipede or petting a tarantula? Have you ever seen a possum beetle roll over and play dead? Join the Oklahoma Cooperative Extension and get adventurous with Oklahoma's only live bug petting zoo!

11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Fred Jones Jr. Museum of Art (Great Hall)

The Fred Jones Jr. Museum of Art presents an exploration into the amazing world of bugs! Create colorful nature drawings while looking at real insects and plant illustrations from the museum's collection.

11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Phill Me Up Cheesesteaks Food Truck (Outside)

Head outside and join us for some tasty treats! Phill Me Up Cheesesteaks will be serving up cheesesteak sandwiches, Frito pies and more.

11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Art Station (Pleistocene Plaza)

Unleash your inner artist at our art station! You can choose one of three designs to decorate, then take your masterpiece home with you.

11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Spaghetti Eddie (Great Hall)

Sing along to the fun, educational and silly songs of Spaghetti Eddie! Support a local musician and rock out to entertaining music for all ages!

1:30 to 4 p.m.

Craft: Popsicle Stick Snakes (Great Hall)

Oklahoma is home to many kinds of snakes that are all important to the environment. Join us to make popsicle stick snakes and learn some facts about these cool creatures.

2 to 4 p.m.

Paint Your Own Face (Pleistocene Plaza)

Get creative! Paint your face like a butterfly, spider or dragonfly.

2:15 to 2:45 p.m.

Storytelling with Valerie Kimble (Great Hall)

Join us for special stories and songs performed by professional storyteller, Valerie Kimble, who has told tales all over the world!

2:45 to 4 p.m.

Digging in the Past (Great Hall)

Stop by to see some awesome artifacts! Dig for arrow points, pottery and bone tools and learn all about the museum's science-outreach program, ExplorOlogy®.