

OKLAHOMA NATIVE AMERICAN YOUTH LANGUAGE FAIR 2023
Spoken Language: Mobile Video Performance (Electronic Submission Only)
 Category Description and Guidelines

Students perform a short mobile video suitable for sharing on TikTok® or Instagram® in a Native language. The mobile video is recorded on a mobile phone and submitted electronically. Presentations promote fluency, confidence, fun and creative expression in Native language use. The mobile video must incorporate the use of written and spoken Native language. Young language learners explore creative use of Native language. Mobile videos submitted in this category are not eligible for the Film and Video performance category.

- The short video must include written and spoken language Native Language.
- Spoken Language – Mobile Video entries are video-recorded and the recording is submitted.

DO

- ✓ Pre-register online
- ✓ Focus on NATIVE LANGUAGE USE
- ✓ Keep a 30-second to 3-minute time limit
- ✓ Use props, costumes and Native regalia
- ✓ Video-record the performance and submit the video-recording to ONAYLF

DON'T

- ✗ Use scripts, notes or cheat sheets
- ✗ Speak in English
- ✗ Have teachers in the video
- ✗ Use copyrighted songs or other material in your video (we will not be able to post it to YouTube)

Judging Performances

A panel of at least three elders, Native language teachers and/or Native speakers will judge performances on these criteria:

- Amount of Native American language used
- Presentation and poise of performance
- Appropriateness to the mobile video genre
- Ease and comfort of language use
- Spirit and creativity of performance

Submission of Performance

We must receive all submissions on or before the deadline posted on the website for judging. You can mail or drop your video-recorded entry in the ONAYLF Dropbox. Follow the instructions on the ONAYLF website. Complete and submit a Submission Form for each Spoken Language Mobile Video Performance centered. Label your video: Performer_Name_Program_Name_GradeLevel.

Notes

- You must pre-register to be judged and to receive awards. Please do so as early as possible.
